February 1994

A CONFERENCE TOWARDS SPIRITUAL CONCORD

AS A

METAPHOR OF SPIRITUAL CONCORD

Summary

Rendered searchable by OCR, but recognition errors may prevent this in some cases. PHP variants (incomplete tables) via http://www.laetusinpraesens.org/docs90s/94spirco.php

Anthony J N Judge
Union of International Associations
40 rue Washington, B-1050 Brussels, Belgium (Fax: (32 2) 646.05.25)

CONTENTS

Clues and insights

Premises for an inter-cultural gathering
Clues to the nature of the gathering
Clues to working insights
Dilemmas of inter-cultural dialogue
Strategically relevant evocative questions?
Axes of bias in inter-cultural dialogue
Dialogue statements or forms of intervention
Structure of declarations: challenging traditional patterns
Traps and opportunities of dialogue
Articulating "The Way Forward"
Possible traps towards spiritual concord

Towards a language of spiritual concord

Guidelines for interreligious understanding
Have "religions" the monopoly of religion ?
The challenge of spiritual concord - viewed through the Banner of Peace
Conveying insights on spiritual concord
Some clues to social harmony through music
Evolution of harmony
Towards an ecology of spiritual traditions articulated by metaphor

Reports on significant meetings

Reflections on an inter-faith meeting (Brussels-Louvain, September 1992)
First World Congress towards Spiritual Concord (Alma Ata, October 1992)
Parliament of the World's Religions (Chicago, 1993)
Togetherbound: a gathering of the mad

Meeting thoughts, visions and speculations

Facilitative guidelines
If the congress appears over-structured
If the congress appears too unstructured
Tao in large groups
A congress as a meditation
Mapping: who's where?
Rediscovering the wheel: types of person and congress communication

Participant messaging system for insight capture

Configuring globally, contending locally

Tensional integrity
Tensegrity construction
Patterns of sustainability -- from 2D to 3D